	Certificates	Bachelor of Religious Education – General	Bachelor of Religious Education – Honours	Bachelor of Theology	Bachelor of Church Music
COURSE DESCRIPTION	Designed for students who want to obtain a biblical foundation of the Christian life and ministry before moving on to other pursuits. Some certificates provide a specific focus of study such as music.	Designed for providing students the opportunity to study God's Word, learn more about theology, and be introduced to various fields in general education, all while being equipped to be disciples and witnesses in the world.	Designed to equip students with the skills, training, and experience, including a focused internship, that prepare them for ministry.	Designed to equip those who are called to lead the church by providing students the opportunity to learn as they study God's Word, while gaining valuable guidance and experience in the many facets of pastoral ministry.	Designed to develop musically gifted students to become skilled and confident Christian artists by integrating the study of music, worship, and theology to cultivate a biblical and worship-oriented ministry.
CORE COMPETENCIES	Students develop greater understanding of the Bible and Christian worldview, and foundational knowledge to strengthen their faith.	Students develop greater understanding of God's Word while gaining insight from theological studies, and receive the opportunity to learn a variety of subjects from a Christian perspective.	Students receive solid understanding of the Bible and theology, and practical guidance relevant to topics in their chosen area of study.	Students learn how to communicate God's Word effectively through teaching and counselling. They will gain a working knowledge of the biblical languages and how to study God's Word, and will develop skills with a practical internship.	Students develop and refine their musical gifts with focused training, skilled instruction, and guidance. They will gain a deeper understanding of the Bible and a solid theological foundation, while gathering valuable experience leading worship and music ministries through practical experiences.
